

DynEd®
Kids

The 4 Dimensions of Effective Practice

No skill can be formed without many hours of effective practice.

Practicing frequently in short periods of high concentration accelerates the acquisition of language fluency.

Language is a skill. It must be practiced like a skill. Start with listening. Then say everything aloud. Then record and compare. Practice, practice, practice.

Good content is full of highly useful, carefully sequenced language patterns, modeled by native speakers at the correct level for each individual learner.

© 2016 DynEd International, Inc. All rights reserved. Designed and printed in the U.S.A. DynEd is a registered trademark of DynEd International, Inc.

Real English fluency up to 2 times faster